SHOT LIKE DOGS.

Severe Treatment of Four Americans in Bolivia—Accused of Being Spies.

Reported to the New York World from La Paz, Bolivia, says: Four Americans, Chas. Joiner, George H. Alfred Heard and Thos. Caldwell, arrived at Chuquisaca last week on a five weeks' journey from Brazil, where they had been working for a time and had assumed considerable money, which they were taking home. They remained several days, and were finally driven out of the country.

Monday Miner accused Pope, the acting Mayor of Chuquisaca, of having cheated them, played cards, and offered to prove it.

Joiner drew a pistol, but was shot down by Joiner, and a general shooting followed, in which thirty Americans were killed. The Americans were shot down without food, and after the semblance of a trial, in which they were accused of being spies, and were not allowed to send a message to the American Consul, were sentenced to death. The sentence was carried into execution Thursday noon, publicly.

Their property has disappeared, but it is known that Gonzales has distributed it among his friends and the police.

It is said England made several attempts last week to get Germany to join in a movement looking to combined European diplomatic action against the latest application of the Monroe doctrine, but these efforts have thus far met with non-committal answers. Popular feeling in Germany is becoming more favorable to the United States as the cause of the trouble is becoming understood.

Congressman Washington, of Tennessee, makes the point that Reed, Dingley, Cannon, Payne and other Republican leaders voted for a gold bond when the Democrats were in power, and he thinks it is a little irregular that they should go back on their record.

Leslie Combs, an extensive land and tobacco speculator, of Lexington, made an assignment Thursday. Daniel and Robert Swiggert, who were more or less connected with him, also assigned. Combs and Daniel Swiggert will each pay about 70 cents on a liability of $100,000, each while Robert Swiggert with a liability of nearly the same amount, will hardly pay more than 10 cents on the dollar.

The Fiendish Work of a Mob Near Lebanon.

A Woman Burned to Death—Her Paramour Filled With Lead.

News comes of a horrible crime committed near Lebanon, Ky. William Devers became too intimate with the wife of T. J. West, a farmer living near Lebanon. West left his wife about a month ago and instituted suit for divorce. Later meantime he met Devers, and drawing his pistol snapped the weapon at Devers twice before the latter could draw a weapon. Finally Devers managed to pull his pistol and fired, killing West in his tracks. Devers surrendered and was acquitted on his examining trial. He at once moved his household effects to Mrs. West's house and the two began an open life together. Mrs. West's children left her after exchanging every argument to induce her to give up Devers. The entire community was outraged at the open disregard for honor and decency exhibited by the guilty pair. Saturday night a band of men went to the house and called for Devers, who refused to come out. They knew their man and the cowardly crowd were afraid to try to go in on him. They began firing through the doors and windows. The woman and Devers' little daughter ran out, but the mob fired on them and the woman returned to the shelter of the walls. The child was shut out by the closed door and had to stand by and witness the fiendish work of the mob. Some of the members of the party ran to a cornfield near by and secured a shock of corn and, placing it against the house, set it on fire. In a few minutes the house was wrapped in flames, and as it began to fall Devers ran out his clothing all ablaze. The woman was burned to death. The little girl was found by a farmer named Thompson wandering in a half crazed condition, near his house. Her condition was so pitiable that she could not give any connected or very intelligent account of the horrible affair.

Mrs. West and Devers were both unfit to live, but the brutal wretches who so fiendishly murdered their merit death yet more than they did.

THE NEW BILLS

Proposed by the House Committee

For the Relief of the Treasury.

MORE TARIFF ROBBERY

Under the Guise of Raising Revenue for the Relief of the Present Stringency.

Chairman Dingley, of the Ways and Means Committee, Thursday reported to the House the tariff and bond bills agreed on by the majority of the committee. The committee says: "The serious fact which we are called upon to confront is that in the two and a half years that have elapsed since July 1, 1893 this Government has had an insufficiency of revenue to meet current expenditures amounting in the aggregate to about $133,000,000. And even in the first half of the present fiscal year the deficiency will reach about $20,000,000 and about $3,000,000 in this present month."

"And up to the present time there is no sufficient ground for thinking that insufficiency of revenue will not continue during the remainder of the fiscal year; and how much longer no one can safely predict."

"If the consequences of such a chronic deficiency were only the necessity of borrowing money to meet current expenses in time of peace, even this would afford abundant reason for increasing the revenue. But the consequences are more wide-reaching than that. Insufficiency of revenue has made it necessary to use the redeemed United States legal tender notes to pay current expenditures and thus to supply additional means to draw gold from the greenback redemption fund—in short, to create the 'endless chain' of which the Secretary of the Treasury complains, and which has made it necessary to sell issue after issue of bonds to replenish the reserve."

"This will clearly be seen when it is remembered that the Secretary of the Treasury has issued and sold a little over $162,000,000 of five per cent. ten years and four per cent. thirty years bonds, from which he has realized about $182,000,000 and after redeeming $182,000,000 of United States legal tender notes with the proceeds, he has been obliged to immediately pay out $133,000,000 of these demand notes to meet current expenditures, and thus has furnished $133,000,000 of government demand notes to be again and again used to draw gold from the Treasury. And the necessity of more revenue from the point of view of the maintenance of the redemption fund is taken away by the fact that we have $50,000,000 of cash in the Treasury, in addition to the $100,000,000 (part gold) required for the redemption fund and the twenty odd millions required as a working balance. This $50,000,000 represents $50,000,000 of redeemed United States legal tender notes for whose redemption we borrowed $50,000,000 in gold. If we continue to pay them out to meet a deficiency of revenue then presently they will come back again to draw $50,000,000 more from the Treasury, which we must supply by selling $50,000,000 more of bonds."

"The suggestion, therefore, that we need no more revenue because we have a cash balance of $50,000,000 of Government notes in the Treasury that can be used to pay any deficiency for the next six or twelve months, is, in effect, a proposition to issue more bonds to meet a deficiency which should be met at once by providing more revenue."

"In other words those who oppose raising more revenue in such a situation in effect—whether they intend to do so or not—favor borrowing in preference to paying as we go along. Your committee believe that it is the duty of the House of Representatives to which body the Constitution commits the inauguration of revenue bills, to frame and pass a measure that will yield not far from $40,000,000, sufficient to put an end to a deficiency—and to do this without delay, leaving to others whose co-operation is required to finally place such legislation on the statute books, to meet the responsibility in their own way."

The committee says further: "Two facts have led your committee to look to an increase of customs duties as the most appropriate source of additional revenue. They are, first, the fact that we are already raising a disproportionate amount from internal revenue. And, secondly, the fact that by increasing customs duties on imported articles which we can and ought to produce or make at home, for revenue purposes, we can, at the same time, incidentally encourage stricken industries and materially aid in turning in our favor the balance of trade which has been so heavily against us all through this calendar year, and which has caused a demand for gold for export which our Treasury has been called to supply. For so long as the balance of trade is against us on account of excessive imports, we must export gold, or (what is the same thing) promises to pay gold, to pay for the excess of imports over exports."

"The bill reported by your committee proposes to make the duty on imported clothing wool 60 per cent. of the duty imposed by the act of 1890, which would give an equivalent of 6-10 of a cent per pound on unwashed wool, or about 40 per cent. ad valorem. This reduction from the duty of the act of 1890 has been made because the restoration of the full duty in that act might seem to be too great a change from the present law to those whose co-operation it is necessary to secure in order to have any legislation, and not as a measure of what might be done when all branches of the Government are in harmony with the majority of the House on protection issues. The duty on manufacturers of wool is increasing by a specific duty equivalent to the duty on wool."

"The duty on carpet wools is left at 32 per centum ad valorem, where it was placed in 1890. This is a purely revenue duty, as we raise very few carpet wools. Such lumber as was placed on the free list by the act of 1890, without the slightest justification, is restored to the dutiable list, but with a duty of only 60 per cent. of the duties provided by the act of 1890—giving an equivalent of only about 15 per cent. Such a reduction from the low rates of 1890 is justified only on the ground that the object of your committee has been to frame a bill mainly on revenue grounds in the hope that it would secure the approval of those in official place, whose co-operation is essential to legislation, and who may be supposed to feel that in such an exigency as now exists the public necessity must control."

AS TO THE TARIFF.

The bill is as follows: Bill No. 2—A bill to temporarily increase revenue to meet the expenses of the Government and provide against a deficiency.

Be it enacted: That from and after the passage of this act, and until August 1, 1896, there shall be levied, collected and paid on all imported wools of classes one and two, as defined in the act hereinafter cited, approved October 1, 1890, and subject to all the conditions and limitations thereof, and on all hair of the camel, goat, alpaca and other animals, except as hereafter provided, and on all nolls, shoddy, garnetted waste, top waste, slubbing waste, roving waste, ring waste, yarn waste and all other wastes composed wholly or in part of wool, and on all woolen rags, mungo and flocks, and on duty equivalent to 60 per centum of the duty imposed on each of such articles by an act entitled "An act to reduce the revenue and equalize duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved October 1, 1890, and subject to all the conditions and limitations of said act; and on wools and Russian camels' hair of Class 3 as defined in said act, approved October 1, 1890, and subject to all the conditions and limitations thereof, there shall be levied, collected and paid the several duties provided by the said act, approved October 1, 1890. And paragraph 279 of schedule K, and also paragraph 655 in the free list, in an act entitled "An act to reduce taxation, to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," which became a law August 27, 1894, are hereby suspended until August 1, 1896.

Sec. 2. From and after the passage of this act and until August 1, 1896, there shall be levied, collected and paid on all imported articles, made in whole or in part of any material described in Section 1 of this act, except as hereinafter provided, 60 per centum of the specific pound or square yard duty imposed on each of said articles by an act entitled "An act to reduce the revenue and equalize duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved October 1, 1890, and subject to all the conditions and limitations thereof. In addition to the ad valorem duty now imposed on each of said articles by an act entitled "An act to reduce taxation, to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," which became a law August 27, 1894; and on carpets, druggists, bookings, mats, rugs, screens, covers, hassocks, bed-sides, art squares and other portions of carpetings, made in whole or in part of wool, the said articles by said act approved October 1, 1890, and subject to all the conditions and limitations thereof. In addition to the ad valorem duty imposed on such articles by said act, which became a law August 27, 1894.

Sec. 3. That from and after the passage of this act until August 1, 1896, there shall be levied, collected and paid on all imported lumber and other articles designated in paragraphs 674 to 683, inclusive, of an act entitled "An act to reduce taxation, to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," which became a law August 27, 1894, a duty equivalent to 60 per cent. of the duties imposed on each of such articles by an act to reduce the revenue and equalize duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved October 1, 1890, and subject to all conditions and limitations of said last-named act, but pulp wood shall be classified as round manufactured timber exempt from duty; provided, that in case any foreign country shall impose an export duty upon pine, spruce, elm, or other logs, or stave bolts, shingle wood, pulp wood or heading blocks exported to the United States from such country, then the duty upon the lumber and other articles mentioned in said paragraphs 674 to 683, inclusive, when imported from such countries shall be the same as fixed by the law enforced prior to 1890.

Sec. 4. That on and after the passage of this act and until August 1, 1896, there shall be levied, collected and paid on all imported articles mentioned in Schedules A, B, C, D, F, G, H, I, J, L, M and N, of an act entitled, "An act to reduce taxation to provide revenue for the Government and for other purposes," which became a law August 27, 1894, a duty equivalent to 15 per cent. of the duty imposed on each said article by existing law in addition to the duty of August 1, 1894: Provided that the additional duties imposed by this section shall not in any case increase the rate of duty on any article beyond the rate imposed thereon by the said act of October 1, 1890, but in such case the duties shall be the same as were imposed by said act, and provided further, that where the present rate of duty on any article is higher than was fixed by said last named act the rate of duty thereon shall not be further increased by this section, but shall remain as provided by existing law.

THE BOND QUESTION.

The report on the bond bill says that the Secretary of the Treasury now has the authority under the resumption act of 1875 to issue and sell ten year 5 per cent. bonds and thirty year 4 bar cent. bonds to maintain the fund for the redemption of United States notes, and that he has sold $700,000,000 of the former description of bonds and about $62,000,000 of the latter description of bonds in the past two years, and as he announces his intention to avail himself of the authority given by the resumption act, and sell more high-rate and long-term bonds if necessary, the only question whether it is not clearly for the public interest that he should have authority to sell a lower rate and shorter term bond.

The committee think that it is clearly in the public interest that he should have this authority, and add: "In granting this authority however, we have included in the bill a provision that the proceeds of bonds so shall be used exclusively for redemption purposes, our object being to secure a separation of the redemption fund from the ordinary cash of the Treasury as will maintain and protect the reserve. We also provide that such bonds shall be offered for sale in such a manner as to invite investment among the masses of these people."

Of the certificates of indebtedness the report says: "In our judgement the Secretary of Treasury should always be... authority as has in most times... of this authority is given the... will indirectly use the proceeds... under the redemption... purposes to use... has been doing... and a half."

As to the bond issues... No. 1—A bill to maintain and protect the coin redemption fund, and to authorize the issue of certificates of indebtedness to meet temporary deficiencies of revenue.

It is expected that in addition to the authority given to the Secretary of the Treasury by the act approved January 14, 1875, entitled "An act to provide for the redemption of speech, patents," he is authorized from time to time, at his discretion, to issue, sell and dispose of, at not less than par in coin, coupons or registered bonds of the United States, to an amount sufficient for the object stated in the act, bearing not to exceed 3 percent interest per annum, payable semi-annually and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States in coin, after five years from their date, with like qualifications, privileges and exemptions provided in said act for the bonds therein authorized. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall issue the proceeds thereof for the redemption of the United States legal tender notes and for no other purpose. Whenever the Secretary of the Treasury shall offer any of the bonds authorized for sale in this act or by the assumption act of 1875, he shall advertise the same and sell by subscription therefor to be sold at the Treasury Department and at the sub-Treasuries and designated depots of the United States.

Section 2. That to provide for any temporary deficiency now existing, or which may hereafter occur, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, at his discretion, to issue certificates of indebtedness of the United States to an amount not exceeding fifty million of dollars, payable three years after date to the bearer in lawful money of the United States, of the denomination of twenty dollars, or multiples thereof, with annual coupons for interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, and to sell and dispose of the same for not less than an equal amount of the lawful money of the United States at the Treasury Department and at the sub-Treasuries, designated depots of the United States, and at such postoffices as he may select. And such certificates shall have like qualifications, privileges and exemptions provided in said redemption act for the bonds therein authorized. And the proceeds shall be used for the purposes prescribed in this section, and no other.

FATE OF ELEPHANTS.
Those Interested Not Alarmed About the Future Ivory Supply.

When we take into consideration the quantity of ivory imported annually, it is not surprising that those who are interested in it should at times become somewhat anxious about future supplies. observes a writer in Chambers' Journal. An authority upon ivory matters some few years back to his particularly struck by this same problem and wrote: "It is reported that England alone imports 1,200,000 lbs of ivory, to obtain which elephants have to be annually and the world's supply must, being estimated, necessitate 100,000 annually slaughtered, for supply be estimated that, if this rate of ivory continues, a comparatively few years will suffice to exterminate the African species of elephants."

The assumption is, fortunately for the world at large, quite incorrect. As a matter of fact, our average annual consumption of ivory, though important factor which the authority just quoted has overlooked—namely, that most ivory that is received is technically known as dead ivory, that is, which have been taken from elephants long since dead, and stored up in the interior of Africa. Of live ivory we do not receive, comparatively speaking, a considerable quantity. There is no fear whatever of the supply being exhausted during the next two or three generations.

S. P. Carr & Co. Tobacco Commission Merchants, Richmond, Va.

In another column will be found the advertisement of S. P. Carr & Co., Richmond (Va.), Tobacco Commission Merchants. It is safe to say that there are few in the Leaf Trade in the East or West who do not know or have often heard of S. P. Carr, one of the most successful and enterprising Tobacco men of Richmond (Va.). Mr Carr was the pioneer of the Virginia business in Virginia, personally soliciting and developing this very important line of business of Richmond, making the acquaintance and connections with large growers and shippers in the West. He began at this branch of the business as long ago as 1874, when Burley was only known by name to thousands of households in Burley Tobacco to the Richmond and other Virginia and North Carolina Tobacco manufacturers. His long connection with this Trade made him an authority on the character and satisfaction of knowing that the Burley business is a very important feature of the Richmond Trade, and that in all his dealings with Western shippers he never made an enemy.

In the West Virginia Bright trade he was also an important factor, always commanding a large patronage, and making fast friends, as in the Burley trade. He still continues to do business at the old stand, the Davenport Warehouse, and besides the Burley and West Virginia Bright trade, he is now prepared to sell Dark shipping, and to export the Dark types of Virginia and Kentucky and Tennessee, and can satisfy the planters and shippers in the Green, direct and other Dark sections of Kentucky and Tennessee, and will be glad to receive consignments and make arrangements with reputable packers.

Few men in the Tobacco trade understand more about the nature and culture of Tobacco than Mr. Carr, and his knowledge commands for him trade from consumers who trust in his judgment and honesty.

The above is from the Western Tobacco Journal. We endorse every word said of Mr. S. P. Carr and his House. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Carr and commend his House to the attention of our tobacco men. The advertisement of the House will be found in another column.—Editor Advocate.

Gov. Bradley says he will not resign from the National Republican Committee.

New York World: The British lion might as well make up his mind to a little inevitable tall-twisting, but perhaps it will not hurt him as badly as he thinks.

Louisville wants the next Democratic national Convention. Mayor Tyler has called a mass meeting of citizens of that city by their forces. The restoration of quiet in the island does not seem a near probability.

The Cuban Rebels have been pushing the Spanish forces very hard for some days past. The insurgents have kept the city of Havana in a turmoil for fear of an immediate occupation of that city by their forces. The restoration of quiet in the island does not seem a near probability.

The House Passed the Bond Bill Saturday by a vote of 170 to 136. Forty-seven Republicans refused to act with the majority of their party. The Populists and Democrats with the exception of Mr. Huie, of Texas, who voted for the bill, presented an unbroken front against it.

Kentucky's Senators fared very well in the Senate committee assignments. Blackburn leads the Democrats on the Committee on Rules and gets on Appropriations, Naval Affairs, Territories, Railroads and on Transportation and Rate of Meat Products. Lindsay's plums are Judiciary, Interstate Commerce, Education and Labor, Pensions, Indian Depredations and International Exposition.

The House passed both the Tariff and the Bond Bills the past week. The Tariff Bill went through like a cannon ball express, but there was a little hitch in railroading the Bond Bill through. Some of Czar Reed's wild colts began to kick in the traces and the bill had to be carried through against their protests. The vote stood 169 ayes and 136 nays. Neither measure has much chance in the Senate, and still less in the President.

The tone of the English press is a very materially different since it has become plainly apparent to England that the people of the United States are a unit with the President in maintaining the position assumed by the Government in regard to the Venezuelan question. Sober second thought has convinced the English people that they cannot afford to play the bully with Uncle Sam. The expressions of the English newspapers within the last few days are very conciliatory. Very generally declaring the trouble can be and must be settled without appeal to arms.

After Him.

Ex-Governor James P. Eagle, of Little Rock, Arkansas, a minister of the Baptist church was in the city Saturday and Sunday. His wife who was Miss Mary Kuyanaugh Oldham is a niece of Mrs. Margaret Chennault and Mrs. Mary E. Tipton and a first cousin of Abner and Charles Oldham. Gov. Eagle stopped at the hotel and did not let his ladies be known, but the keen perception of an Advocate reporter put a few circumstances together and arrived at a conclusion. The First Baptist church, of Little Rock, are after capturing Dr. Everett Gill of the Baptist church, this city, and without any knowledge of Dr. Gill or any of the congregation Gov. Eagle dropped in and took them unawares. This is rather cute on the part of the Little Rock church, but the Baptist migration here will see to it that Dr. Gill will remain with them. Gov. Eagle returned to Richmond Sunday where he joins his wife and together they will this week return to their home in Little Rock.

The Parkon Theater Company played here last week. It was one of the best companies on the road and they pleased the theater going people Monday night they played "That Baby," Tuesday "Twist Love and Duty," Wednesday "Our Boarders," Thursday "Kathleen McVourneen," Friday night by a request they repeated "That Baby," and Saturday "Paradise Alley." The leading lady was "Flora Devos," and Harry S. Kingley in his new songs and dances was in new. They play at Knoxville this week where they will doubtless have large houses. This company under the extra good management, is one of the very best and most popular on the road.

MARK TWAIN'S WIFE AND DAUGHTER.
Mark Twain is now replenishing his depleted purse by lecturing in Australia. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter and seems to have made a decided hit with the antipodeans. When he returns to America, Twain will probably write another "Tramp Abroad."

BAD RECORD.

Business Has Suffered Greatly This Year—Largest Number of Failures Ever Reported.

There Were 22 Per Cent More Than in '94

Total Debts of Insolvent Companies, $158,842,445.

Over a Million Firms and Individuals in Business—Broad street's Figures.

New York, Dec. 28.—The number of failures in the United States during 1895 is 13,013 contrasted with 12,721 in 1894, an increase of 22 per cent.

This is the largest number of failures ever reported since the record was begun, with the single exception of 1893, two years ago, when the aggregate was 15,560, compared with which the falling off in 1895 is 16 per cent.

An increase in the amount of the following one of panic is exceptional. The total amount of liabilities of failing firms, corporations and individuals in the United States during 1895 amounted to $158,842,445, more than $9,000,000 in excess of the total in 1894; an increase of five per cent, or three times the rate of increase in the total number of failures. The grand total of assets of failing firms, corporations and individuals during the year amounted to $38,115,320, or more than $3,000,000 in excess of the like total of the year ago, an increase of more than 10 per cent, showing a relatively greater degree of insolvency of those embarrassed than in the preceding year.

The total number in individuals, firms and corporations having a recognized place in business at the close of 1895, as shown by the preceding statement, was about 1,054,000, showing that the business population of the country has only fairly begun to show an increased movement compared with a year ago, when the total was 1,047,000, and as compared with two years ago, when the total was 2,050,000.

The total number of business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada and from Newfoundland for the calendar year just closed is 1,923, or fifty more than in 1894, while the aggregate liabilities are $15,792,559, as compared with $23,365,383, a decrease of sixty per cent, which can only be construed as a remarkably favorable exhibit. The corresponding falling off in assets of failing traders in the Canadian Dominion and in Newfoundland is a little more than fifty per cent.—Commercial Gazette.

Mt. Sterling's Fire Record For 1895.

From the secretary of the Fire Department's report we gather the following data. The Fire Company has been called out during the year to twelve fires as follows: (Here give fires.)

"On February 13, a colored dwelling on Mill Street, near the Climax Mill for which we were allowed one hour.

On February 23, John J. Cornell's residence on Clay Street, for which we were allowed three hours.

On May — a fire at the Harold Hotel, for which we were allowed one hour.

On May 23, a fire down at Martin Row on Locust Street, for which we were allowed two hours.

On June 17, a fire at Mr. B. J. Paine's residence on the Levee pike, for which we were allowed three hours.

On July 3, a fire at Mrs. Tipton's residence on High Street, for which we were allowed one hour.

On July 6, a fire at Dave White et al. residence, between the railroad and a masonry, for which we were allowed two hours.

On August 1, T. F. Rogers, Robert and Bert Lyons, houses on Strother Street, Mattie Lee City, for which we were allowed four hours.

On November 22, a fire at Mr. N. Tipton's residence on Strother Street, for which we were allowed one hour.

On December 2, a fire at Chiles-Thompson Grocery Co., and Bush & Son's stables on Locust Street, for which we were allowed four hours.

On December 14, a fire at Major C. W. Fowler's residence, on Mayville Street, for which we were allowed one hour."

The Company which numbers 25 men have been allowed pay for a total of 438 hours, which at 75 cents per hour makes a total of $328.50, or an average of $13.13 per member during the year.

The Company has done most effective service and each and every man is entitled to the hearty thanks of the citizens of our city for the brave service given. The musciment sum the members have received in payment for this service will not replace the clothes destroyed, much less pay them for the toll and exposure experienced. The Company has during the year lost by death its youngest member, brave and manly Lee Clarke.

Below we give the names of the roll of 1895:

C. E. Notes.

So many committees to be filled out and so many people who will expect places. Meet these two requirements, and the whole committee problem is solved according to the conception of some Endeavorers.

In our grave discussions as to why the committee idea does not always work successfully, we usually leave out of the question that it depends on the material we put into our committees. There is quite as much sense in taking it for granted that, because a man is a good citizen, he will be equally successful as a shoemaker, doctor, or locomotive engineer, as there is in placing persons indiscriminately on the Lookout, Social and Prayer-meeting Committee on the general principle that they will succeed because they are exemplary Christians.

Usually the best committees are formed by allowing the chairman to choose his own helpers. Of course this means that the right chairman must be found. But it is usually possible to find enough persons who seem particularly adapted to each of the special lines of work to form this beginning for the committees. It is better to allow the chairman to begin work with only one or two helpers or even to work alone, for a while, than to fill out the number with those who either can not or will not act. Again, new members are sometimes added to the society who are fitted for special service on certain committees.

It is a mistake to invariably place persons who are not particularly spiritual upon committees where the work is of a secular character. The things that have brought some of our societies into reproach are usually traceable to this. For instance, there is no place where there is greater danger of worldliness creeping into the society than through the work that is usually done by the Social Committee. Guard it well by placing on it some of your most consecrated workers. Again, the work of the Flower and Good Literature Committee is often placed in the hands of those who are likely to forget that these things are to be merely the agents by which souls are to be won to Christ, and built up in Christ. Take counsel in the selection of your committees, and above all, pray earnestly that God may direct you in it.—(The Lookout.)

The Annual Convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Virginia was held in Roanoke, last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There were more than eighty delegates present from a distance, and over a hundred including the Roanoke delegation. The addresses of the convention were of a high order. The address of Peter Abrell, of Baltimore, on "Christian Manhood," was pronounced a masterly effort by all who heard him.

J. R. Collinwood, of Roanoke, was elected President for the next year.

Our people were well represented both by delegates and by speakers. An effort will be made to bring the societies of the state into more thorough organization. A monthly paper will probably be published in the interest of the Endeavor Societies of the State. The sittings of the Convention were largely attended, and the music by the choir of seventy-five of Roanoke's best singers was most delightful.—Richmond Discipline.

The Licking Valley (Kentucky) Union has for its motto: "One Thousand Souls in '96." This Union is the largest and most prosperous in the State.

Sufficient pledges have been made by the Endeavor Societies of the state to justify the Board of the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society in placing a Christian Endeavor Evangelist at some special mission.

A Pastor Visit Every Family in the Community?

QUEER SPECIES OF RIGHT.

Why Some People Feel an Impulse to Leap from High Elevations.

At a great height many persons would no more think of looking down upon the surface of the earth than they would of thrusting a hand into a blazing fire. An irresistible impulse comes over them to jump, and this impulse is stronger when the feet are close to the edge of the roof of a high building, says the New York Mail and Express.

Carpet Prices and Carpet Qualities.

Six-cent sugar at four cents would be cheap, providing it was the same sugar. Seventy-five-cent carpets at 50 cents would also be cheap. But business and philanthropy don't mix. We are selling standard manufacturers; get a reasonable price, and make an honest profit. The difference between cheap carpets and good carpets is three years' wear instead of seven or eight; dissatisfaction instead of satisfaction, and 10, 15, or 25 cents a yard in the price. Does it pay? Will you buy our carpets—good carpets?

Mrs. Naomi Bailey, of Lexington, died at the residence of William Vaughn, Locust Street, Saturday afternoon of catarrh of the stomach, aged 72 years. Her remains were taken to Lexington Sunday for burial.
Mrs. Bailey was a native of Jessamine County, but for years had lived in Lexington. She had considerable estate, and while Mrs. Vaughn was a resident of Lexington became very much attached to her and had frequently visited her, and we understand that he expected to take this city her home. Mr. James D. Tipton had been attending to her business, and while here she made a will and appointed him her Executor. Mr.
Bailey was a member of the Methodist Church, was active in the service and was very charitable.

Mr. Thos. Robinson, a farmer of the Grassy Lick neighborhood, while getting over a fence some two months since jumped on the stub end of an axle, penetrating his foot to the ankle. Mr. Robinson had the elder promptly extracted, and thought that his foot was entirely well, but after he had been walking on it for a week or two, it began to pain him again. A doctor was summoned and upon examination reported that there was danger of blood poisoning, and that he would probably have to have his foot amputated. Mr. Robinson certainly has been unfortunate, having with a few months lost his life to happen over his foot, his wife by death and now his own life is hanging as by a thread.

MRS. MARY SCOTT DIMMICK.
Mrs. Mary Scott Dimmick, the charming widow of Captain Harrison May, was was Miss Mary Scott Lord before her marriage. She is a niece of his late wife and was named after her. Mrs. Dimmick is said to be between 35 and 40 years of age.
During Mr. Harrison's administration she lived at the White House.

Tip-ton.

Mrs. Minerva, wife of A. L. Tipton, departed this life on Sat-day evening the 28 instant, aged 29 years from pulmonary trouble. On the 30th instant her funeral was presented at the Methodist church by her pastor Dr. Everett Gill, of the Baptist church, and Rev. C. J. Nugent, of the M. E. church, and her remains were buried at Maplehurst cemetery.

Mrs. Tip-ton was a daughter of T. J.
Jones and was born in Rich. county.
Seven years ago she came to this city and made her home with her sister, Mrs. Kline Ford. And five years ago the 12th of last November she was united in marriage to A. L. Tip-ton. To them was born one child, a daughter, Winona, who is now four years old.
For 13 years she has been a member of the Baptist church joining under the ministry of Rev. J. K. Nunneley at Sharpburg, and when she moved to this city she became a member of the Baptist church here. For a woman of her years she had done much in the church. At Sharpburg she was one of the most faithful Sunday School teachers, and as a church member she was ever ready for duty.
Well versed in the scriptures and church doctrines, she was always ready to give reasons for her faith and anxious to lead others to the fountain from which she drank. While at the World's Fair at Chicago she contracted a deep cold which developed into the dreadful disease which ended her beautiful life. Though her suffering was great and almost unendurable she never murmured, and though she often expressed a desire that her days might be lengthened that she might rear her little daughter to womanhood, be a joy to her husband and do good in the world it was with her, not my will but Thine be done. She was conscious to the very last. To the loving ones she bled them not weep, assuring them she was ready to enter the great future and be with Him she trusted. Death to her had no terrors, and her life went out like one entering into sweet rest. Of such a woman it is pleasant to speak. Here was a life with Christ which abounded in good deeds. Language fails to convey the lovable character she was and the tender and most sublime character, "she was a child of God," furnish the thought which portrays the life of Mrs. Minerva Tip-ton. May the father in his declining years, the grief stricken husband, daughter, sisters and friends, look up through their tears and follow her as she followed her Master.

The Hop.

The Montgomery Ball Club gave one of their delightfully pleasant hop last night, Saxton's band furnishing the music. This club never fails to make preparations for a night of unalloyed pleasure. The young gentlemen who compose the club know how to entertain and never deem that anything they can do to add to the pleasure of their guests, is to be counted a trouble.

Among those who were in attendance from abroad were the following:
Misses Maude White, Mabel Russell, Bessie Woodford, Gertrude Benick, of Paris; Miss Yerna Garner and Miss Gilbert, Winchester; Misses Mary Goodpastor and Agnes Catlett, Owingsville; Miss Anna Crutcher and Miss Chenaunt, Richmond; Miss Elizabeth Hazlrigg and Miss Rodman, Frankfort; Miss Harriet Dunn, Indiana.

Messrs. Home Payne, L. V. Butler,
Sam Clay and Sidney Clay, Paris;
Sidney Claff, Georgetown; Richard Stoll, Lexington; Charles Taylor, L.
H. Bush, Nelson Prentiss and Taylor
Jackson, Winchester; James Crutcher, Neal Bennett and Cas. Tribble, Richmond; W. G. Ramsey, A. J.
Gatwood and C. E. Ewing, Owingsville; Cliff Thompson, Payne's Depot; David Lipscomb, Tennessee; Whitaker,
New York.

Women are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. Health keeps a man young. It doesn't make any difference if he has lived eighty years. If they have been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and won't look within twenty years as old as he is.
Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice, it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by putting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. All druggists keep the "Discovery."

The Sterling Ball Club gave one of their most popular entertainments at the Masonic Temple on last Thursday evening. The ladies were never more beautiful and the young men appeared to their very best advantage. The music was furnished by Saxton's Orchestra, of Lexington. At 12 o'clock there was an intermission and the party retired to the Commercial Hotel where they were served to an elaborate supper. The dining hall was beautifully decorated, with flowers, evergreens and potted flowers, and the supper which was every thing that could be wished for was served in the most elegant style. The proprietor, Mr. Wilson, from the compliments which are numerous must have done his very best.

As to the good things we are prepared to testify that every course was elegant and served in grand style.

A number of our young people called on Cas. Goff and gave him a surprise party on Thursday night.
They had good music, plenty of dancing and a fine time generally.

Stratberry, 2541, will pace next season, without hoppers if he can be made to do so.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

For Young Men and Women who Want an Education.

And are Unable to Maintain Themselves While Securing it.

My time expiring with the churches of Christ as Grayson and Greenup, in December I will return to my home Montgomery County, and will begin to make arrangements to continue an Industrial School, in connection with my farm, for the benefit of poor boys and girls, who earnestly desire an education. The school will begin the 1st of March 1897.

All the Common School branches will be taught, and if the school succeeds, as we sincerely believe and hope it will, the curriculum of study will be enlarged and the very best help secured, in order that every student, who desires, may secure a first-class education, and do so almost without any money.

Practical farming and domestic work will be taught, and the students besides learning many practical lessons which will be of great value to them through life, will gain the physical exercise necessary to health and development of both mind and body.

The best moral influence possible will be thrown around the boys and girls in the institution and each pupil will be required to attend chapel exercise every morning, and the church at least once on every Lord's day.

Every student will be compelled to comply strictly with the rules which will govern the school, and a refusal will result in expulsion from the school. The students will be under my personal control from the time they enter the school and the school and will of course be required to conform strictly with the laws of the school both on the farm and in the school room.

A tuition fee of $5, and $5 for washing will be required for five months of every student to be paid on entering the school.

I send out these circulars three months in advance so that those who wish to enter a school of this kind may have ample time to prepare to come.
However, I wish to say to any, who after an earnest effort has failed to secure the amount required, to write me, and if it can be done, he will be received without it, and the opportunity will be offered to do extra work, for the instruction in this institution, is to cultivate the spirit of independence and self-reliance in the character of the students, so that no student will feel that he is an object of charity, and be humiliated by such a feeling.

Every boy or girl who knocks at the door of this institution will be received if possible, for I am determined to make my self as useful as possible, and am willing to do my utmost, and to make any sacrifice that will enable the poor young man or woman to fight the battles of life more successfully. I shall stake all in the enterprise.

No students are collected except those who are willing to do their best on the farm and in the school room.
I will say that the work on the farm will not be unreasonable, nor beyond what is right, and only sufficient to pay the board of the student at the rate of two dollars per week.

The students will be in the schoolroom from 8 to 12 a. m., five days in the week, and the afternoon and Saturday given to work, thus enabling the student to have the best of his time for his books.

The school will be located near Jerfersonville, on the Jeffersonville and Cane Run branch of the C. & O. R. R. I try there is another advantage to the students in the way of clothing.
Plain, cheap clothing can be worn so that the expense in the way of clothing will be very small. The location is healthful, and is free from many of the temptations and seductive influences of the cities and towns that degrade and ruin thousands of young people who are seeking an education.

After reading this carefully and you decide to enter the school, write me at Jeffersonville, Montgomery county, Ky., for I want to know as early as possible how many students wish to enter the school so that I may know how to make my calculations. Enclose a two cent postage stamp in your letter, for a correspondence with those who write to enter the school will be necessary. I feel assured that a host of opportunity to lead usefulness will open to me, for already I have talked to a number of young men and women who are anxious to enter the school.
It is a new venture, and I make it with fear and trembling, but by constant prayer and the exercise of faith in the living God, inspired by the sublime motives of helping my fellow man, I am forced to believe that after two years of prayer and meditation that it is my duty, and that it will be crowned with most glorious results.

And the dead Panilio is the occasion of still another law suit. This time it is Richard Curtis who sues in his claim, and on Monday filed suit against Messrs. W. P. Batchelor and R. D. Spurr. Mr. Curtis' claim is for $1,212.25, of which amount $396 is for training and driving Panilio prior to his death, in 1894, and $816.25 as one-fourth of the net winnings of the horse during the time he had charge of him—Stock Farm.
